DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment filed 13 September 2006 amends claims 3, 6, 28, 44, and 45. Claims 1, 7, 50, and 51 have been cancelled. Claim 52 has been added. Applicant's amendment has been fully considered and entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, with respect to the §112, second paragraph rejections of claims 6, 28, and 44 have been fully considered and are persuasive in light of the current amendments. The §112, second paragraph rejections of claims 6, 28, and 44 are withdrawn.

Examiner's Amendment

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1[52]. (Currently amended) A method of evaluating software by a user for subsequent purchase comprising the steps of:

acquiring a software package, said software package comprising:

a first object, said first object a full-featured version of at least one software product, wherein said user is denied access to said first object;

a second object, said second object a further version of said software product having some, but less than all, of the features of said first object;

Art Unit: 2132

an access and control portion, said access and control portion affording selective access to any of said first and second objects, wherein said access and control portion includes usage authorization information, wherein at least said first object, said second object and said usage authorization information are macro-compressed and micro-compressed; and a notifier providing information required by said user for purchasing rights to said software product and enabling entry of transaction information required for purchase of said rights;

installing said software package on said buyer's computer system;
accessing said second object, access to said second object being unrestricted; and evaluating said second object whereby said user assesses whether said software product meets said user's requirements.

Claim 3. (Currently amended) The method of Claim 1[52], wherein said acquiring step comprises any of the steps of:

acquiring said software package as a software copy on a recordable medium;
acquiring said software package via data communication from any of an Internet site and a dial-up online service.

Claim 6. (Currently amended) The method of Claim 1[52], wherein said first object and said usage authorization information are encrypted, whereby said user is prevented from accessing and using said first object and said usage authorization information until said prospective user executes a purchase request, thereby acquiring a license to at least some of the rights to said software product.

Claim 45. (Currently amended) The method of Claim 1[52], wherein said software package includes means for protecting said software package against class attacks and dump attacks.
